Getting initiated into a new life, Puma-style, can be quite an experience . . .

All Roads Lead To St. Joe . . .

Life at Saint Joseph's is a potpourri of activities, some large and some small, that collectively produces the Collegeville alumnus who never forgets these moments . . .

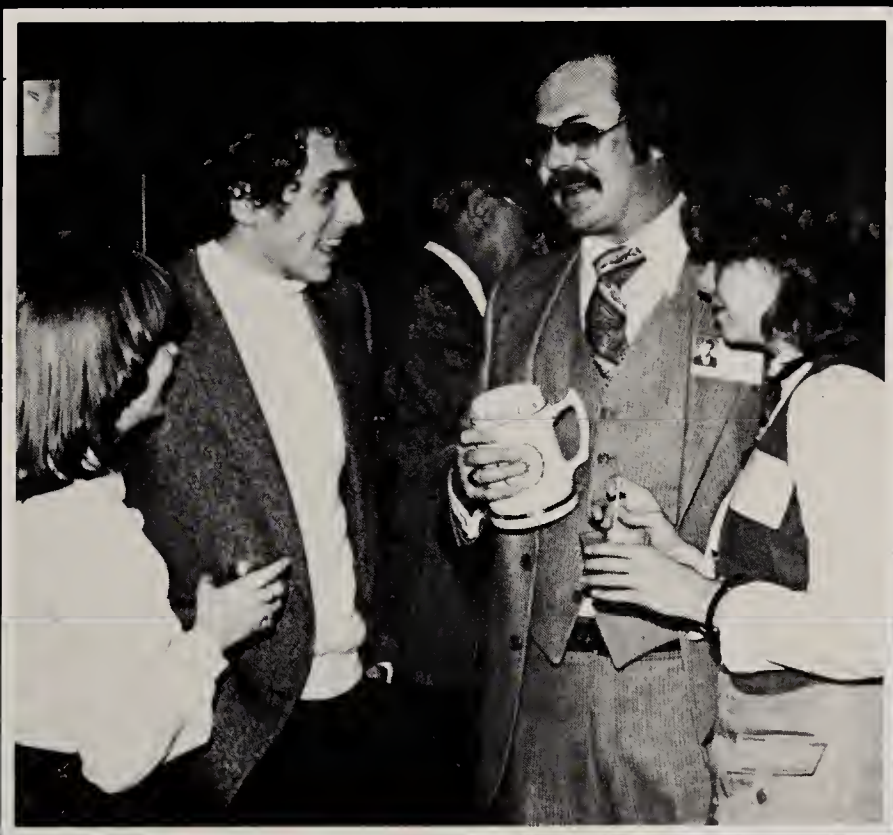

... even years
after the sun has set on his/her college career.

Semester One

Homecoming '80

Homecoming '80 gave us a successful formula for a memorable, joyous weekend — warm October sunshine smiling on a morning parade, bleachers filled with boisterous Puma fans, and a convincing 29-6 football rout of arch-rival Valparaiso.

Homecoming Queens and their escorts: Joe Hogan, Colleen Barrett, Theresa Robertson and Rob Bridges.

SALT WATER DAFFY

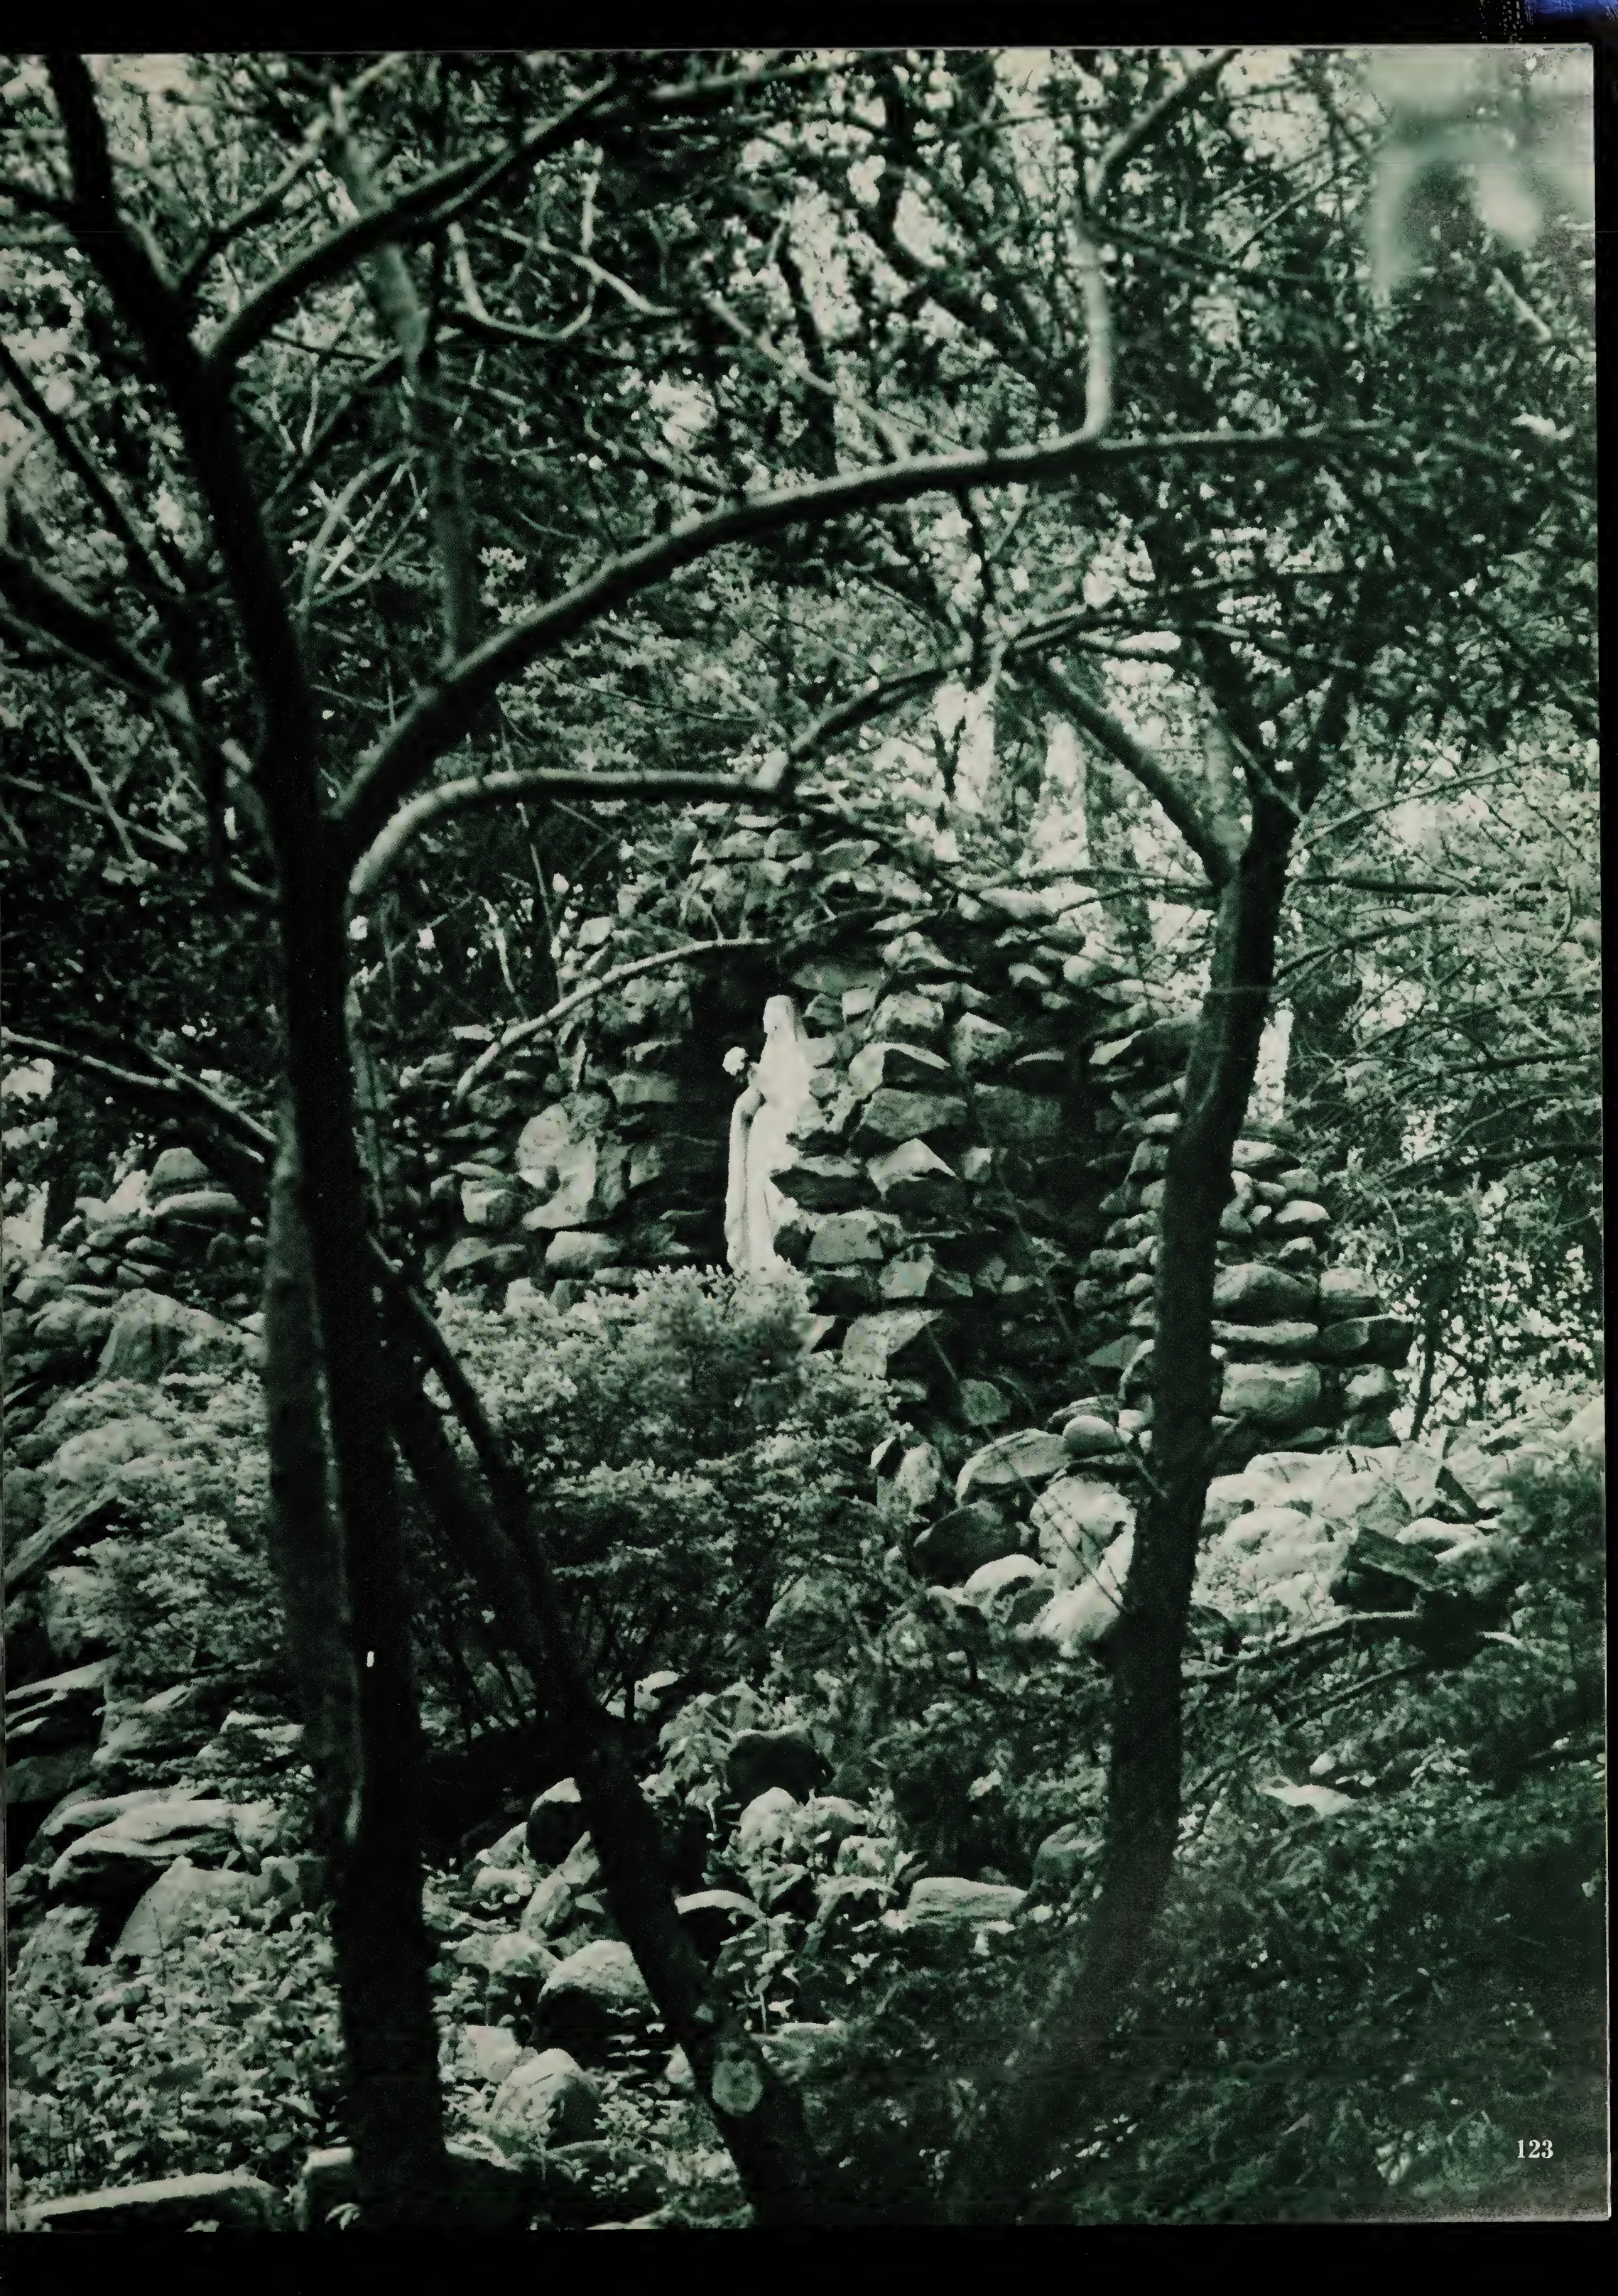

CHRISTMAS AT ST. JOE'S...

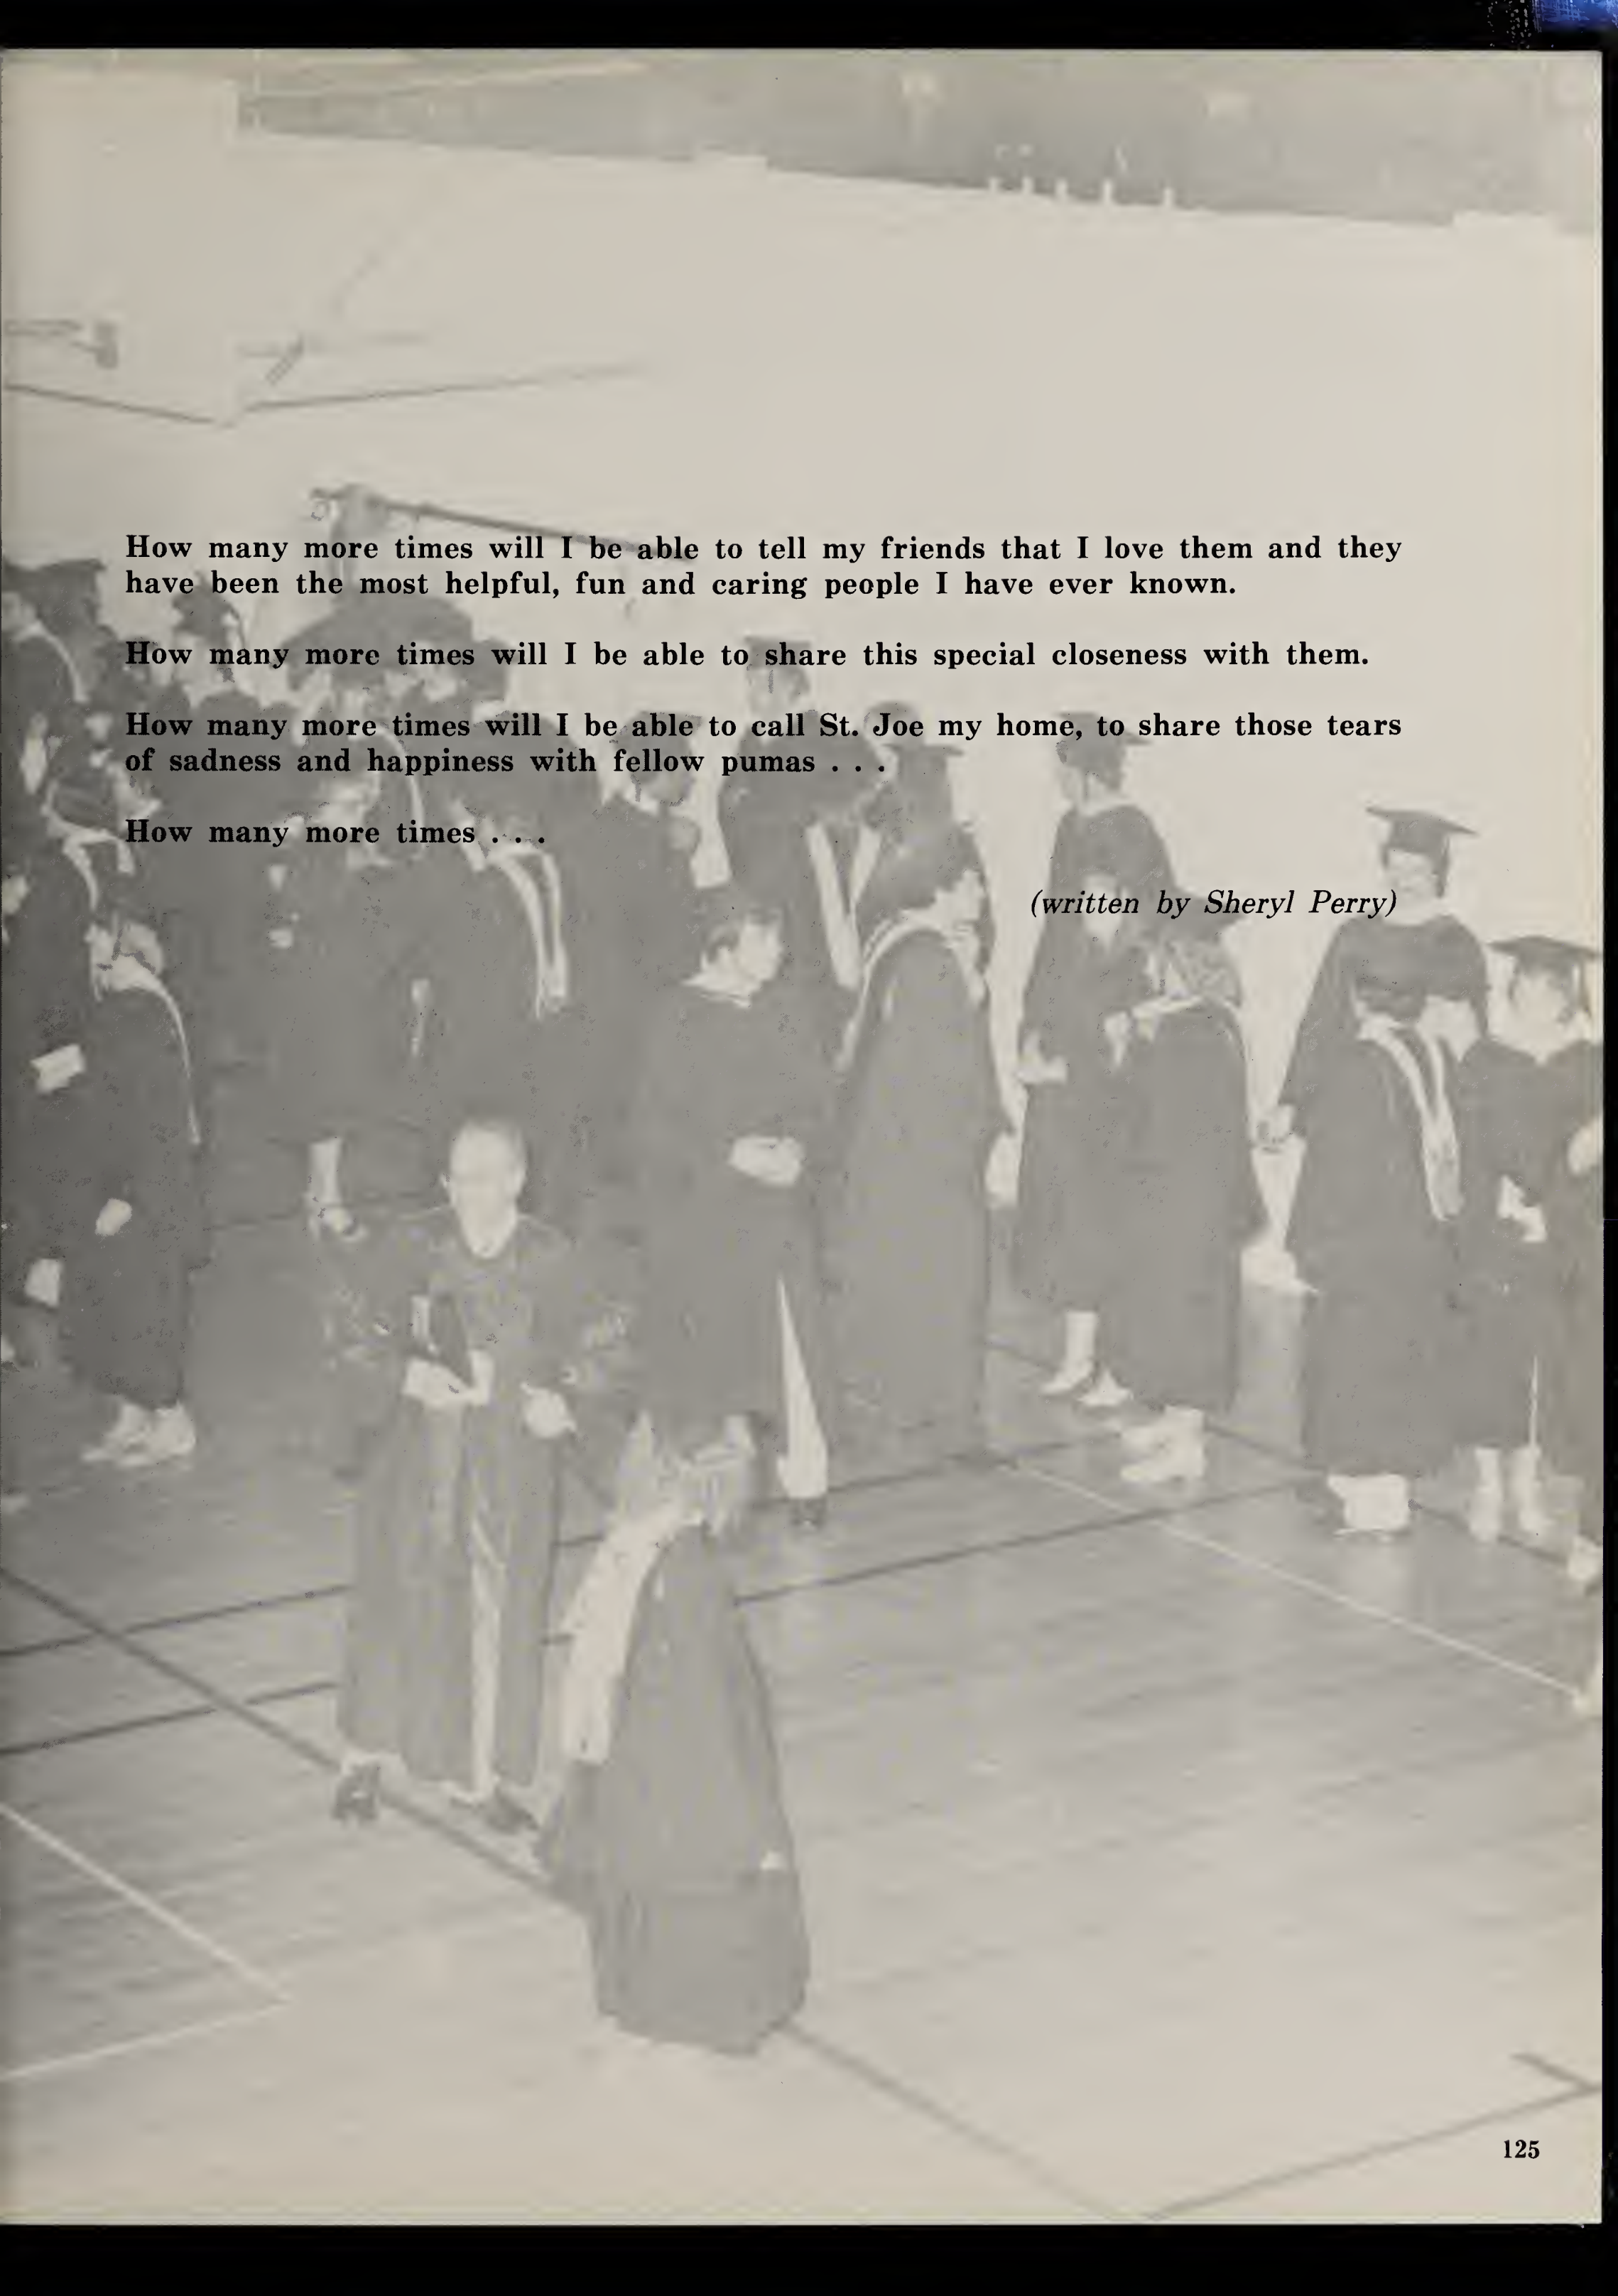

How many times will I be able to . . .

play backgammon for six straight hours clear the cobwebs out of my P.O. box get abused when I walk past Gallagher drink screwdrivers at Frank parties stand in line for 4:30 supper play Pac-Man in the game room enjoy Happy Hour with friends pull all-nighters for accounting tests be a good secretary for everyone's favorite prof go to Wahl's for a few afternoon social ones see the Noll guys on the executive golf course eat a wagonmaster at Southside bowl a few at Core XI climb to the top of the science building ring the church bells procrastinate at the 'brary read playgirl fantasies with friends sneak him up the side doors have a patio party with my friends catch the soaps at noon write a Core paper the night before it's due pimp someone over
make fun of disco music laugh off another rejection letter sleep through Fr. Kostka's mass drink peppermint schnapps at a football game collect money for a keg play bar dice at floor parties stow away at the swamp play "Boz Scagg's: it's over" take a real nap
have a few at Ma Rafferty's on Sunday skip class
play "morning train" at Southside catch the rays on Justin beach give WPUM news
use crude college lingo sneak one past Ma Dunn book the door with a cost accounting book have a black-out party make perverted phone calls be devious all day
stand in long lines at the Computer Center look forward to ten 'till eat a pumaburger
be subject to Seifert's annual: "It pays to be ugly contest" be a Mr. Puma escort see pornos at Raleigh
avoid a barracuda
be a jerk and have no one notice play on the swings at Brookside until 6 A.M.

How many more times will I be able to tell my friends that I love them and they have been the most helpful, fun and caring people I have ever known.

How many more times will I be able to share this special closeness with them.

How many more times will I be able to call St. Joe my home, to share those tears of sadness and happiness with fellow pumas . . .

How many more times . . .

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those people who helped us put this year's PHASE together . . . First, we would like to express our sincere appreciation to our advisor, Mr. Schuttrow, and Mrs. Schuttrow, for their countless hours of help throughout the year. We extend our thanks to Mr. Jerry Schlueter and Mr. Doyle Fox for their help with photography and publications. A special thank you to Mr. Donald Burrell and his photo lab for his help with our color photographs. We are especially grateful to those members of the St. Joe faculty and student body for their loyal support during our subscription drives. Last, an extra big thanks to our staff, who made our jobs easier and a lot more enjoyable. We hope that you will enjoy your copy of PHASE '81,
